DESTINATION

Jersey

As well as being a picturesque island in the heart of the Channel Islands, Jersey is recognised as a world-leading financial centre. With history at every turn, walkers will be captivated by the unspoilt landscape and families can relax on pristine beaches. Jersey was originally under Norman rule; however, it has been under English rule since the ascent of William Duke of Normandy to the English throne in 1066.

EVENTS

1-2 SEPTEMBER. JERSEY LIVE FESTIVAL. Featuring Chas & Dave, Status Quo, Gallagher’s High Flying Birds, Professor Green, The Stranglers, Rizzle Kicks, Maverick Sabre and more.

13 SEPTEMBER. JERSEY INTERNATIONAL AIR DISPLAY. St Aubin’s Bay provides a fantastic natural amphitheatre for the display aircraft as well as offering spectators a wide variety of vantage points.

15-22 SEPTEMBER. JERSEY WALKING WEEK. For a small island, Jersey packs in an amazing variety of walking opportunities.

THURSDAY 27 SEPTEMBER 7.30PM. SNOOKER CHAMPIONS PLAY AT FORT REGENT IN JERSEY. The Current World Snooker Champion Ronnie O’Sullivan will be playing with his great friend, and former World Seniors Champion Jimmy White. One lucky audience member will also partner a legend in a game of doubles. Tickets from £20.

27-30 SEPTEMBER. BRANCHAGUE INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL. Dynamic and intimate, Branchage has become a platform for audiences and filmmakers to get fully immersed and inspired by the art of film.

1 OCTOBER-12 NOVEMBER. TENNERFEST. The Channel Islands can look forward to six weeks of great food at fixed prices. Across Guernsey and Jersey, over 170 restaurants will be taking part.

20-21 OCTOBER. CIDER FESTIVAL. La Fais’ie d’Cidre celebrates Jersey’s rich heritage of growing apples and making cider. There’s also a local craft market, children’s activities and live music.

31 OCTOBER. AN EVENING WITH SIR RANULPH FIENNES OBE, JERSEY OPERA HOUSE. An evening with the ‘world’s greatest living explorer’.

9-11 NOVEMBER. THE JERSEY EVENING PRESS HOME LIFE SHOW. The consumer show at Fort Regent has over 110 exhibitors in the Queen’s Hall and the Gloucester Hall.
